

PrefutureTM

design your tomorrow

www.prefuture.uk

It's time to think about what you want to study when you leave school.
And there are more than 22,000 courses at 150 universities to choose from.

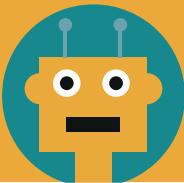

So you probably need some time and a bit of practical help to get your head around the many fantastic options that are available to you.

That's exactly why I designed and built Prefuture™ – just for you!
It's the app that genuinely makes it easy and fun to design your tomorrow.
